Re: Nomination of Professor Amy Coney Barrett as Circuit Judge, United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit

Dear Chairman Grassley and Ranking Member Feinstein,

We are all lawyers who had the privilege of serving as law clerks for the Supreme Court of the United States, along with Professor Amy Coney Barrett, during the Supreme Court's October Term 1998. After our clerkships, we have had a broad array of work experience from private practice to government service to academia to the business world. We are Democrats, Republicans, and independents, and we have diverse points of view on politics, judicial philosophy, and much else. Yet we all write to support the nomination of Professor Barrett to be a Circuit Judge on the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Professor Barrett is a woman of remarkable intellect and character. She is eminently qualified for the job. This view is unanimous – every law clerk* from October Term 1998 has joined this letter.

We worked closely with Professor Barrett during our year clerking at the Court. We had the opportunity to observe her approach to the law and her interactions with others during our intense and challenging joint endeavor supporting the work of the Court. Based on our observations, we came to respect Professor Barrett's conscientious work ethic, her respect for the law, and her remarkable legal abilities. She conducted herself with professionalism, grace, and integrity. But perhaps as importantly, she treated with courtesy everyone who worked at the Court and she was able to work collaboratively with her colleagues (even those with whom she disagreed) on challenging legal questions. She is smart, honorable, and fair-minded; all good qualities for a Circuit Court Judge.

Since her clerkship, Professor Barrett has had a distinguished career. She went on to practice law at the prestigious law firm of Miller, Cassidy, Larroca, and Lewin and then later Baker Botts. She then left private practice for academia and a law professorship at the University of Notre Dame. Such a range of legal experience – from law clerk, to private practice, to academia – will serve Professor Barrett well in a new legal role as a member of the judiciary.

Professor Barrett is fully qualified for the position of Circuit Judge on the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Based on our experience clerking with her, we believe that Professor Barrett will make an excellent addition to the federal bench.

Very truly yours,
